If the member fails to file and/or pay the associated fine for more than sixty (60) days after the final filing date, the member shall be removed from the board, commission, or committee by City Council action.

Ethics training

Assembly Bill 1234 imposes ethics training and compensation and reimbursement requirements on cities, counties, and special districts. Youth Sports Coalition members are exempt from this requirement since appointments to the coalition are made by the youth sports member organizations and not the City Council.*

Limitations

Limited reports and comments at the end of the agenda are permissible as long as no action is taken.

Other persons

Persons addressing the board, commission, or committee shall step up to the podium and may, though not required, give their name for the record. All remarks shall be addressed to the body as a whole and not to any member thereof. No person, other than a member of the board, commission, or committee, staff liaison, or the person having the floor, shall be permitted to enter into any discussion without the permission of the presiding officer.

Any person making personal, impertinent or slanderous remarks, or who shall become boisterous or belligerent while addressing the board, commission, or committee, shall, by the presiding officer, be barred from further audience before the board, commission, or committee during that meeting, unless permission to continue is granted by consensus of the board, commission, or committee. (Appendix V)

Spokesperson for group of persons

Whenever any group of persons wishes to address the board, commission, or committee on the same subject matter, it shall be at the discretion of the presiding officer to request that a spokesperson be chosen by the group to address the board, commission, or committee and, in case additional matters are to be presented at the time by any member of said group, to limit the number of persons addressing the board, commission, or committee, so as to avoid unnecessary repetitions. The presiding officer may set a time limit for each side of the issue.

Meeting procedures

These meeting procedures shall pertain to all City of Roseville boards, commissions, committees, and the City Council. To the extent these procedures do not address an issue of parliamentary procedure for legislative body meetings, "Rosenberg's Rules of Order: Simple Parliamentary Procedures for the 21st Century" shall apply. (Appendix VI)

Other guiding documents

- The City of Roseville Charter, Roseville Municipal Code, and state statutes will govern board, commission, and committee activities.
- Parliamentary Procedure dictates the body of rules, ethics, and customs governing meetings and other operations of clubs, organizations, legislative bodies, and deliberative assemblies.

Meetings

Regular meetings

Regular meetings shall be held as scheduled, bi-weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually. If a regular meeting date falls on a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held at the same hour, same day the following week or may be canceled.

Special meetings

Special meetings may be called by staff, the chair, or a quorum of voting members of the board, commission, or committee. Notice of the special meeting must be provided to the board, commission, or committee members at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance.

Business transacted at any special meeting shall be limited to the subject(s) recited in the notice of the special meeting.

Adjourned meetings

Any regular or special meeting may be adjourned (continued) to a specified time and place.

Recess of a meeting

A recess of a meeting may be called at the discretion of the presiding officer.

Closed session

Prior to holding a closed session, the City Council or Personnel Board shall disclose, in an open meeting, the item or items to be discussed in the closed session as they are listed on the agenda and may only consider those matters. The City Council or Personnel Board shall publicly report any action taken in closed session and the vote or abstention of every member present thereon as required by state law. No other board, commission, or committee shall conduct a closed session without the prior written consent of the City Attorney.

Quorum

A quorum is more than half ($1/2 + 1$), of all voting members of the entire board, commission, or committee. A quorum is based on the number of voting members of the full board, commission, or committee. In the absence of a quorum, a lesser number of members or the board, commission, or committee secretary must adjourn the meeting after fifteen (15) minutes have passed. In addition, if a quorum is lost during the meeting due to a departure of a member(s), a lesser number of members or the board, commission, or committee secretary must adjourn the meeting.

Meetings of a majority of members

A meeting is a congregation of a majority of the members of a board, commission, or committee at the same time and place to hear, discuss, deliberate, or take action on an issue in the subject matter jurisdiction of the board, commission, or committee. Even if no action is taken, a gathering may constitute a meeting. This includes informal gatherings and electronic communications, with or without public attendance or city sponsorship.

The following situations would not be considered a meeting if a majority of the board, commission, or committee members attend as long as: (1) matters within the board, commission, or committee's jurisdiction are not discussed, unless they are part of the program; and (2) program or events are open to the public:

- Open and publicized local public meeting;
- Open, noticed meeting of another body;
- Social or ceremonial event;
- Open, noticed meeting of a standing committee (can attend but cannot participate);
- Individual contacts or conversations among less than a majority of the members and a member of the public.

Although the above examples are generally not considered meetings, the City Attorney should be consulted prior to a majority of the board, commission, or committee members attending a "non-meeting." It is often advisable to notice the meeting or limit the attendance to less than a majority of the members.

Agendas

The order of business at all regular meetings shall be as follows:

- Call to Order
- Roll Call
- Pledge of Allegiance
- Public Comments
- Consent Calendar
- Requests / Presentations (and public hearings)
- Board Member / Commissioner / Staff Reports
- Adjournment

Call to Order

The presiding officer of the board, commission, or committee shall take the chair precisely at the hour appointed for the meeting, and shall call the meeting to order.

Roll Call

The roll of the members shall be called by the board, commission, or committee secretary and the names of those present shall be entered into the minutes.

Public Comments

Public Comments is intended to allow the public to address the board, commission, or committee on matters not listed on the agenda. Individual comments shall be limited to three (3) minutes and shall not exceed a total of 25 minutes, unless such time is extended by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall not permit the public to address items which are listed elsewhere on the agenda or which are not within the subject matter jurisdiction of the board, commission, or committee. The board, commission, or committee shall not engage in debate regarding, or take any action on, any matter brought under Public Comments except to refer the matter to staff or to determine that the matter should be included on a future agenda for debate and action.

Consent Calendar

The Consent Calendar consists of items that are routine or noncontroversial in nature. The entire calendar is intended to be acted on in one motion on a roll call vote. Any member of the board, commission, or committee, staff, or the public may remove an item from the Consent Calendar for further discussion. Items removed from the Consent Calendar for further discussion shall be discussed separately following the approval of the remaining items on the Consent Calendar. If a member of the board, commission, or committee has a question or wishes to remove an item from the Consent Calendar they should call the staff liaison to the board, commission, or committee no later than noon the day of the meeting. The staff liaison will determine if the item can be handled after the Consent Calendar or if it needs to be held over to the next meeting. The staff liaison shall so inform the presiding officer.

Requests/Presentations

Requests/Presentation items include presentations by staff or others, which may prompt discussion and/or action by the board, commission, or committee.

Public Hearings

Public hearing items include opening the public hearing, presentation by staff, presentation by applicant or appellant, and testimony from the public.

The order of business at public hearings shall be as follows:

- Open public hearing by presiding officer
- Presentation by staff
- Presentation by applicant (unless applicant is appellant)
- Presentation by appellant
- Open public comment by presiding officer
- Public comment
- Close public comment by presiding officer
- Rebuttal by appellant
- Rebuttal by applicant (unless applicant is appellant)
- Close public hearing by presiding officer
- City Council/board/commission/committee deliberation
- City Council/board/commission/committee action

Board Member/Commissioner/Committee/Staff Reports

Board Member/Commissioner/Committee Staff Reports are designed for members of the board, commission, or committee and staff to report on individual assignments or to request that an item be placed on a future agenda. The latter requires a consensus of the board, commission, or committee. Individuals are allocated five (5) minutes apiece, for comments.

Adjournment

A motion to adjourn shall not be debatable. It shall be in order at any time, and;

- Cannot interrupt a speaker who has the floor;
- Cannot be amended;
- Must be seconded;
- Cannot be reconsidered;
- Must have a majority vote;
- A motion to adjourn “to another time” is debatable only as to the time to which the meeting is adjourned.

Order of business

The order of business may be changed at any time by the presiding officer or by consensus of the board, commission, or committee.

Voting

All business requiring approval of the board, commission, or committee shall be taken individually by an affirmative or negative vote and entered into the record, except that where the vote is unanimous it shall be necessary only to state so.

Majority vote

A majority vote is more than half of the votes actually cast. In the event a motion on an item fails to obtain a majority vote, the presiding officer at his or her discretion shall require another motion, continue the item, or (with exception of the Personnel Board or Board of Appeals) refer the item to the City Council without recommendation if the item is before a board, commission, or committee. The number of motions that may be made on an item shall be at the discretion of the presiding officer.

Tie vote

If there is a tie vote on a motion, then the motion shall fail. In the event a motion on an item results in a tie vote, the presiding officer at his or her discretion shall require another motion, continue the item, or refer the item to the City Council without recommendation if the item is before a board, commission, or committee. The number of motions that may be made on an item shall be at the discretion of the presiding officer. If the matter involves an appeal, and an affirmative vote does not occur, the result is that the decision appealed remains in effect as decided by the decision-making person, board, commission, or committee from which the appeal was taken.

Abstention

An abstention occurs where a board, commission, or committee member, although qualified to vote on a motion chooses not to register his or her vote. An abstention constitutes no vote whatsoever. A roll-call vote shall be taken to note that the board, commission, or committee member was present but did not vote.

Conflict of interest

When a member has a conflict of interest, or the appearance of a conflict of interest, the member must:

- Publicly state the nature of the conflict;
- Step down from the dais and leave the room until consideration of the particular item is finished, unless the item is on the Consent Calendar;

- Not be counted toward achieving a quorum while the item is being discussed.

Recommendations

When a board, commission, or committee votes to make a recommendation to the City Council, such items may not be appealed since recommendations are not considered final approvals or decisions.

Official record

Minutes

The Minutes serve as a permanent record of the board, commission, or committee's official actions. The board, commission, or committee secretary shall be required to make a record only of such business as was actually passed upon by a vote of the board, commission, or committee, and shall not be required to record any remarks of board, commission, or committee members, or of any other person except at the special request of a member of the board, commission, or committee.

Minutes of the previous meeting shall be provided to the board, commission, or committee prior to each meeting. The minutes may be approved by majority vote even if one or more of the voting members were not present at the meeting to which the minutes relate.

Other items to be included in the minutes

Minutes may include the name and city of residence of any person addressing the board, commission, or committee, the subject to which their remarks are related, and whether they spoke in support of or opposition to the matter (members of the public are not required to state their name and city of residence);

The time board, commission, or committee members arrived or left if they arrived late or left early. This should be in the Roll Call area following the individual's name and also in the minutes at the point when the individual arrived or left;

The time the meeting was called to order, recessed (if breaks are taken) and adjourned.

Public hearings

Reference must be made to any evidence presented (letters, testimony, etc.) and include any findings of fact or official actions taken by the advisory body.

Style & tone

- Minutes should follow these guidelines:
- The style is narrative;
- Tone is impersonal, objective and professional;
- No descriptive or judgmental phrases (e.g. "a heated debate");
- Never use nicknames or first names;
- Always identify individuals with their titles, (e.g. "Commissioner Smith");
- Use few adjectives and a minimum of pronouns;
- Never use I, you, we, or our

Correction to Minutes

Members of boards, commissions and committees are to review minutes and make corrections if needed so that the approved minutes accurately reflect the work of the group. Corrections are made at the meeting when the minutes are brought forward for adoption. Corrections require a motion, second, and a majority vote, and, if approved, are noted in the minutes of the current meeting. Any changes to the draft minutes approved by the board, commission, or committee will be reflected in the minutes for the meeting at which the corrections are made.

Recordings

A recording may be made of the board, commission, and committee meetings. Audio recordings of the board, commission, and committee meetings are to be kept for one (1) year, and video recordings are to be kept for three (3) years after which time the recordings shall be destroyed. Recordings are not the official minutes of the board, commission, and committee meetings.

Agenda notice requirements

Open Meeting Law

All of the meetings of the boards and commissions are subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act, requiring the entire deliberative process of a public body to be open to the public.

Meetings

A meeting is defined as the convening of members, whether in person or through electronic media or other communications, of the board, commission, or committee for the purpose of exercising the responsibility, authority, power or duties delegated to that body. A meeting is subject to the law whenever the board, commission, or committee meets for official purposes. When a quorum (1/2 + 1) of the members of a board, commission, or committee are present, it is considered a meeting for official purposes. A meeting does not include social or chance gatherings.

Further, any communication, including emails, social media posts, or other electronic communication or serial conversations between some or all members, could be considered a public meeting. Information or any type of communication to be shared by one member with other members of the board, commission, or committee shall be sent to the staff liaison who will forward it to all members of the board, commission, or committee.

Intermediary communications

Technically, a staff person can email less than a majority of the members of a board, commission, or committee to brief them on a topic; however, this is not recommended as it may lead to an inadvertent violation of the Brown Act. Staff members must exercise care not to disclose other members' views and positions.

Email communications

It is good practice to blind copy all members when sending an email to prevent a member from "replying all" and inadvertently violating the Brown Act.

Public notice

The Brown Act requires that all meetings of a governmental body be preceded by an official public notice:

- Regular meetings – when the meeting is held at a regular day, time, and location, the agenda must be posted 72 hours in advance of the meeting.
- Special meetings – when the meeting is held at a different time, different day, and/or different location than a regular meeting, then the agenda must be posted 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

Dissolution

The City Council may dissolve the coalition at a public meeting should the City Council determine the coalition no longer meets the needs of the city. In the event of dissolution, the coalition will continue to meet for up to six (6) months following council's decision to dissolve the coalition in order to finalize a plan for disposition of any remaining funds. The coalition's plan for disposition of any remaining funds shall require City Council approval.

City Council

Elective officers

The electors of the City shall elect a council of five (5) members each of whom shall be elected by district by the voters in that district for a four (4) year term of office. Commencing with the General Municipal Election in November of 2020 and every four (4) years thereafter, the voters in the odd-numbered electoral districts shall elect a councilmember. Commencing with the General Municipal Election in November of 2022 and every four (4) years thereafter, the voters in the even-numbered electoral districts shall elect a councilmember. The council shall constitute the legislative and governing body of the City and shall have authority, except as otherwise provided in this charter, to exercise all powers of the City, and to adopt such ordinances and resolutions as may be proper in the exercise thereof. No councilmember shall serve more than two (2) consecutive four (4) year terms, commencing as of a date subsequent to April 9, 1974. A partial term of less than two (2) years served due to appointment or election to a vacant council seat does not count as a term for purposes of this section. However, a combination of an appointment to a vacant council seat followed by a subsequent election to fill the remainder of the unexpired term of that same vacant seat shall count as a term for purposes of this section.

Eligibility for office

Only United States citizens may be elected or appointed officers of the City. Furthermore, in order to be eligible for City office, any councilmember elected or appointed to represent an electoral district must reside in that district and be a registered voter in that district, and any candidate for city council must reside in, and be a registered voter in, the district in which the candidate seeks election at the time nomination papers are issued.

Assumption of office by, meeting of council, and seating of mayor and vice mayor

The council shall be sworn in and assume office, subject to the qualifying provisions of this charter, upon receipt of a certified statement of the results of the election pursuant to California Elections Code 15372, as it may be hereafter amended. The council shall hold its first meeting at that time. The vice mayor shall be seated by rotation in sequential order of the five (5) districts. Upon termination of a councilmembers' term of office as vice mayor, the vice mayor shall be seated as mayor. The mayor and vice mayor shall each serve a two (2) year term.

Powers and duties of mayor

The mayor shall be the official head of the city government for purposes of ceremony. The mayor shall serve as the presiding officer at meetings of the City Council and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to advice from the City Attorney or the City Attorney designee. The mayor may not make any motion, but may second a motion. The mayor shall have all other rights and privileges of a councilmember.

Vice mayor

In the temporary absence or disability of the mayor, the vice mayor shall exercise the duties and prerogatives of the mayor. The mayor shall, whenever possible, notify the City Clerk of the mayor's intended absence from the city. In the event both the mayor and vice mayor are unable to perform their duties, the City Council may appoint one of its members to act only as chair of a meeting.

Compensation

Each member of the City Council shall receive a salary that shall be six hundred dollars ($600) per month for each councilmember and the mayor shall receive an additional fifty dollars ($50) per month. Councilmembers may, upon order of the City Council, be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the service of the city. Confirmation of reimbursement should be received before expenditures are made.

Auxiliary Positions

Councilmembers are expected to attend many meetings outside of the city and may or may not be compensated for their attendance. Every two years the mayor is responsible for bringing recommendations forward for the distribution of these councilmember responsibilities to serve on regional and local agencies, boards, commissions, committees, and joint power authorities. If unable to attend, councilmembers must ensure their alternates can attend to ensure a quorum of members is present.

Councilmember vacancies

- A. An office becomes vacant on the happening of any of the following events before the expiration of the councilmember's term:

1. Upon any of the grounds listed in Section 1770 of the California Government Code as it now exists or may hereafter be amended.
 2. Upon termination of residency in an electoral district by a councilmember elected or appointed to that district unless a substitute residence within the district is immediately declared and established within thirty (30) days after the termination of residency.
- B. When a vacancy is, for any reason, anticipated in advance of its actual occurrence, the council shall initiate the appointment or election process in anticipation of the vacancy. The councilmember who will be vacating the seat may not participate in the process.
- C. Any vacancy on the council may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining councilmembers within sixty (60) calendar days after the vacancy occurs. A person appointed by the council to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next feasible election. A councilmember elected to fill a vacancy thereafter shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term. No person may be appointed to the council more than once.
- D. If the council fails, for any reason, to fill such vacancy within the sixty (60) day period set forth in subsection c, it shall forthwith call an election for the earliest possible date to fill such vacancy. A councilmember elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.
- E. A partial term of less than two years served either due to an appointment or an election to a vacant Council seat, does not count as a term. Further, a combination of an appointment to a vacant Council seat, followed by a subsequent election to fill the remainder of the unexpired term of the same vacant seat, does count as a term.
- F. In the event of a vacancy in the office of mayor, the vice mayor shall be seated as mayor and shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term being assumed. In the event of a vacancy in the office of vice mayor, a vice mayor shall be seated from the electoral district next in rotation and shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term being assumed. The filing of vacancies pursuant to this subsection, however, shall not disrupt the normal mayoral and vice mayoral rotation and shall not result in reducing a mayor's or vice mayor's scheduled term.

Regular meetings

The council shall hold regular meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month; provided that, if a regular meeting date falls on a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held at the same hour, same day the following week or may be canceled. An agenda will provide the time and place of the meetings.

Special meetings

Special meetings may be called by the City clerk, City manager, City attorney, or by written request of the mayor or any three (3) councilmembers by providing each councilmember with at least seventy-two (72) hours' written notice, except that for time sensitive business, only twenty-four (24) hours' written notice is required. Written notice shall be served personally, electronically, or left at each councilmembers' usual place of residence, and shall be publicly posted in accordance with the timeframes set forth in this section. Business transacted at any special meeting shall be limited to the subjects recited in the notice of such meeting.

Meeting place

All regular meetings shall be held in the council chambers, 311 Vernon Street, unless, by consensus, the City Council decides to meet elsewhere, in which case, notice of such alternate meeting place shall be posted by the City Clerk in a public place in advance of the proposed meeting in accordance with the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Meetings to be public

Except for closed sessions permitted by general state law, all City Council meetings shall be open to the public and members of the public shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

Quorum

Three (3) councilmembers shall be a quorum for the transaction of business at City Council meetings except as otherwise provided by the charter. In the absence of a quorum, a lesser number of councilmembers or the City Clerk may adjourn the meeting to a later date.

Attendance and conduct at meetings

The City Council may, by vote of not less than two (2) of its members, enforce orderly conduct and compel the attendance of its members and other city officers at its meetings. Any member of the City Council or other officer of the city who refuses to attend such meetings or conducts themselves in a disorderly manner shall be deemed guilty of misconduct in office. Upon request of the City Council, the City Manager shall designate a police official or officer to serve as the sergeant-at-arms of the City Council.

Council rules

The council shall determine its own rules and order of business subject to the following provisions. There shall be a journal of proceeding or minutes of all council meetings approved by the council and to which the public shall have access at all reasonable times. Within seven (7) days after any regular or special council meeting, the actions taken by the council at the meeting shall be available on the City's website, and within thirty (30) days after any regular or special council meeting, action minutes of the meeting shall be prepared by the council for its approval.

A vote upon all ordinances and resolutions shall be taken individually by an affirmative or negative vote and entered upon the journal, except that where the vote is unanimous it shall be necessary only to so state.
